First system of musical notation for the Hymn of Praise. It consists of two staves (treble and bass clef). The music begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a common time signature. The first measure contains a whole note G. The word "-mour" is written below the first measure, and "ff" (fortissimo) is written below the second measure. The music continues with various note values and rests.

Second system of musical notation. It consists of two staves. The music continues from the previous system. There are first endings marked with the number "1" and second endings marked with the number "2".

Third system of musical notation. It consists of two staves. The music continues with various note values and rests. The letter "H" is written above the first measure, and "J" is written above the last measure. The number "11" and "ff" are written below the last measure.

Fourth system of musical notation. It consists of two staves. The music continues with various note values and rests. The letter "K" is written above the last measure. The dynamic marking "f" (forte) is written below the first measure.

Fifth system of musical notation. It consists of two staves. The music continues with various note values and rests. The number "4" is written below the first measure, and "f" (forte) is written below the second measure.

Nos 8. 9. TACET.

Nº 10. CHORUS. YE NATIONS OFFER TO THE LORD.

in B^b Allegro non troppo.

First system of musical notation for the Chorus. It consists of two staves. The music begins with a treble clef, a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and a common time signature. The letter "A" is written above the first measure. The numbers "14" and "16" are written below the first two measures, and "f" (forte) is written below the third measure.

Second system of musical notation. It consists of two staves. The music continues from the previous system. The letter "B" is written above the first measure. The numbers "2", "6", "3", and "2" are written below the first four measures, and "f" (forte) is written below the second measure.
